

DANCE THEATRE WORKSHOP WITH LINDSAY KEMP AND JACQUELYN BESSELL

In order to celebrate the 2016 Shakespeare's anniversary, Verona's township has organized, in collaboration with the University of Verona and the Verona-based Teatro Scientifico – Teatro Laboratorio, a dance theatre workshop led by Lindsay Kemp, with Daniela Maccari, and co-directed by Jacquelyn Bessell.

The workshop will be complemented by a series of conferences and events organized by the University of Verona.

- 1) The initiative aims at providing English and/or Italian speaking actors with movement or dance experience as well as dancers with acting experience with the opportunity to develop and enhance their professional skills by working with internationally renowned artist Lindsay Kemp and Jacquelyn Bessell from Guildford School of Acting (Univ. of Surrey).
- 2) The workshop will take place at Verona, Italy, and will be dedicated to Romeo and Juliet.
- 3) The workshop is open to EU and non-EU actors with movement or dance experience and dancers with acting experience (participants must be eighteen years old or over).
- 4) The workshop will include a final public performance to be staged at Verona on 23 June 2016.
- 5) Phase 1 – Preselection: candidates must send a cover letter (including their name, complete address, and valid e-mail address), a résumé, two photos (a half- and a full-length portrait), and a short motivation letter by 29 February 2016 to: info@teatroscientifico. Results will be communicated to applicants by 15 March 2016 via e-mail.
- 6) Phase 2 – Auditions (by invitation): auditions will be carried out at Verona on 29 and 30 March 2016. Results will be communicated by 20 April 2016 via e-mail.
- 7) Phase 3 – The workshop will take place at Verona from 16 May to 23 June 2016 (final performance date).
- 8) No fee is required but attendance will be compulsory and any absence will have to be authorized by the director.

A certificate of attendance will be issued to each participant.
